Executive MBA
for professionals in food, agriculture, and biosystems

Iowa State University
Ivy College of Business
Executive MBA

This exclusive program is tailored to busy professionals in the food, agriculture, and biosystems industries. Our curriculum includes standard MBA courses taught by internationally known faculty and incorporates customized content and case studies dealing with current industry issues.

HIGHLIGHTS
• two study trips (Washington D.C. and one international destination)
• leadership speaker series featuring high-profile executives
• concierge service — we take care of all the small details
• cohort members have a minimum of five years of experience
• no summer classes
• know your schedule the day you apply
• classes meet every three weeks on Friday and Saturday

APPLICATION
Our application process is easy. Submit a CV or resume to emba@iastate.edu to get started. No GMAT required.

TUITION
The total tuition cost is $68,500 and includes books, speakers, networking events, study trips, and most meals. Tuition is payable in four installments spread out over three calendar years to provide budget flexibility.
